

Reference nr. 1724 : The Salvation Army

Truck Support person

The Salvation Army Family Store are seeking the assistance of a number of able-bodied people who can assist with moving furniture (eg beds, dressers, chairs, small household goods). You will be working with another person when delivering items, or picking up donations. Come and join a fun and interesting team! This is a reasonably physical role so a level of strength and fitness is required.

Training

Health and safety are an issue with bulky items so there will be training on safe practices. We have suitable equipment to assist as well. The training will be mainly on the job.
