

Reference nr. 2258 : I Have A Dream

After School Programme Assistants

I Have a Dream works with students attending low-decile schools in Whangarei. We support young people from Year 3 until two years after high school.

We urgently need Volunteers to support our Dreamers and Navigators. There are positions available at all four schools. We are specifically looking for caring people who can assist in our after school programmes after school for 2 hours per week.

If you, or someone you know, would like to make a difference in children's lives, while also having fun and building relationships, please apply now.
