Trade Aid Trust Board and Education Opportunities

Concerned about fairness in trade? Want to be involved with projects that make a real difference to peoples' lives?

Trade Aid is an Aotearoa social enterprise creating fairness in trade. We work with small food and craft producers around the world, and we support and educate kiwi consumers to join with us in creating a world where trade is fair for all.

The Whangarei Trade Aid Trust Board is looking for more members for our Trust Board, which supports our Shop manager and runs educational activities. Keen volunteers with a commitment to social justice are needed for various roles.

Training

Experience is not required as training is available.

Specific requirements

Keen volunteers with a commitment to social justice are needed for various roles.

Opportunities include-

- Education team - promoting our educational work in various ways - ideas and enthusiasm wanted!
- Volunteer liaison - a great communicator and warm personality required to support our volunteers
- Youth outreach - a young person to attract and educate the next generation
